SEGAL INSTITUTE RECOGNIZED AS TOP FUNDRAISER FOR NAMIWALK BROWARD COUNTY

Segal Institute for Clinical Research was recognized as top fundraiser during NAMI Broward County's annual Holiday Party, Volunteer Recognition and Walk Celebration.

Miami, Florida -- January 8th, 2016 – Segal Institute for Clinical Research was recently recognized as the top fundraiser at the annual NAMIWalk Broward County during NAMI Broward County's Holiday Party, Volunteer Recognition and Walk Celebration.

The event, which occurred on Friday, January 8th, 2015, was held for all NAMI members and walk Participants, Sponsors, Volunteers, and Team Captains. Segal Institute was honored and recognized as a Sponsor as well as a top fundraising team for the NAMIWalk. Segal Institute's team, Fight Club, raised $5,439.

"Many people will forget what you said. Some will forget what you did. But no one will forget how you made them feel."

- Silvia McCoy-Llambes, Site Leader

NAMIWalk Broward County took place on November 14, 2015 at Tracewinds Park in Coconut Creek. This was the third year NAMI Broward County hosted the NAMIWalk to help not only raise funds needed to offer programs and services, but to also raise awareness about mental illness. The 5k walk had over 1150 participants, raising over $112,000 for NAMI Broward County and NAMI Miami-Dade.

"Our collaboration with NAMI enables us to offer much needed resources to our volunteers. Working alongside NAMI has also been incredibly empowering to our team of researchers. Sharing our research and clinical trials with the NAMI community helps keep everyone educated and on the cutting edge as we continuously strive to help in the attainment of new treatment options for those suffering with mental illness."
